1.	INTRODUCTION	17
2.	THE GEOGLYPHS IN THE NASCA REGION	20
	2.1 Definition and description	20
	2.2 Chronology and cultural context	23
3.	GEOGLYPH RESEARCH IN THE NASCA REGION	25
	3.1 Geoglyph documentation	25
	3.1.1 Previous research	25
	Terrestrial measurements 26, Aerial photography 26, Photogrammetry 27
	3.1.2 Review of documentation methodology and research approach	27
	Satellite remote sensing 27, Aerial photogrammetry 29, Complementary archaeological fieldwork 31, Geographic Information System (GIS) 31
	3.2 Geoglyph analysis and interpretation	32
	3.2.1 Previous research	32
	Johan Reinhard 34, Anthony Aveni 34, Persis Clarkson 35, Gary Urton 36, Helaine Silverman 36, David Browne 37, María Rostworowski 38, Aurelio Rodríguez 38, David Johnson 38
	3.2.2 Review of recent investigations and research approach	39
	The Andean model 39, Critical comments on the Andean model 40
	3.3 Summary: Geoglyph research in the Nasca region	43
4.	THE NASCA-PALPA PROJECT	44
5.	DOCUMENTATION OF THE PALPA GEOGLYPHS	46
	5.1 Flight planning	46
	5.2 Image acquisition	48
	5.3 GPS Measurements	50
	5.4 Aerotriangulation	50
	5.5 Bundle adjustment and image orientation	51
	5.6 Digital terrain model generation	51
	5.7 Scanning of images	52
	5.8 Orthophoto generation	52
	5.9 Vector extraction	53

5.10	Map revision and geoglyph definition	53
5.11	Geoglyph description	55
5.12	Object layer generation	55
5.13	3D Modeling	58
5.14	Conceptual data modeling	59
5.15	Database implementation	61
5.16	Data analysis	61
5.17	Visualization of results	61
5.18	Summary: Documentation of the Palpa geoglyphs	65
6.	ARCHAEOLOGICAL ANALYSIS OF THE PALPA GEOGLYPHS	66
6.1	Geoglyph typology	66
6.1.1	Definition of geoglyph types	67
6.1.2	Distribution of geoglyph types	74
6.1.3	Summary: Geoglyph typology	74
6.2	Geoglyph chronology and cultural affiliation	76
6.2.1	General chronological framework	78
	Associated finds 78, Stratigraphy: Geoglyphs and buildings 83, Summary: General chronological framework 85
6.2.2	Typochronology	85
	Associated finds 85, Iconography 87, Stratigraphy: Geoglyphs and geoglyphs 90, Summary: Typochronology 91
6.2.3	Summary: Geoglyph chronology and cultural affiliation	91
6.3	Activity related to geoglyphs	94
6.3.1	Geoglyph construction, remodeling, and maintenance	94
6.3.2	Walking on geoglyphs	98
6.3.3	Vessel placement	100
6.3.4	Construction and use of stone structures on geoglyphs	101
6.3.5	Summary: Activity related to geoglyphs	103
6.4	Geoglyph setting and order	106
6.4.1	Order on the site level	106
6.4.2	Order on the regional level	108
	Geoglyph distribution patterns and accessibility through time 108, Visibility of geoglyphs 112, Orientation of geoglyphs 116
6.4.3	Summary: Geoglyph setting and order	118
7.	DISCUSSION: THE ANDEAN MODEL AND THE PALPA GEOGLYPHS	119
7.1	Geoglyphs as expressions of social and spatial order	119
7.2	Geoglyphs as places for ritual activity	123
7.3	Geoglyphs as sacred space	124
7.4	Geoglyphs related to mountain worship	125
7.5	Geoglyphs related to water and fertility	125
7.6	Geoglyphs used as roads	126
7.7	Summary: The Andean model and the Palpa geoglyphs	127

8. RESULTS AND CONCLUSIONS	129
8.1 The Palpa geoglyphs in the prehistory of the Nasca basin	129
8.2 Geoglyph perception and understanding	131
8.3 Geoglyph documentation: Review of applied methods	132
8.4 Summary and conclusions	133
9. APPENDIX	134
9.1 Development of complex geoglyph sites	134
9.1.1 Geoglyph sites on sloped terrain	134
Sites PV67A-39 and -40 (Cresta de Sacramento) 134
9.1.2 Geoglyph sites on plateaus	135
Site PV67A-35 (Cresta de Sacramento) 135, Site PV67A-47
(Cresta de Sacramento) 136, Site PV67B-55 (Cerro Carapo) 138
9.2 Excavation of stone structures on geoglyph sites	139
9.2.1 Elongated platforms on the edge of plateaus	139
Site PV67A-47 (Cresta de Sacramento) 139, Site P67A-35
(Cresta de Sacramento) 139, Summary 140
9.2.2 Rectangular platforms on trapezoids	142
Site PV67A-90 (Cresta de Sacramento) 142, Site PV67A-80 (Cresta de Sacramento) 143, Sites PV67A-15 and -16 (Cresta de Sacramento) 143,
Site PV67A-62 (Cerro Carapo) 146, Summary 150
RESUMEN	152
1. Introducción	152
2. Los geoglifos de la región de Nasca	153
3. La investigación sobre los geoglifos de Nasca	153
3.1. Documentación de los geoglifos	153
3.2. Interpretación de los geoglifos	155
4. El Proyecto Nasca-Palpa	156
5. La documentación de los geoglifos de Palpa	157
6. El análisis arqueológico de los geoglifos de Palpa	160
6.1. La tipología	160
6.2. La cronología y el contexto cultural	161
El marco cronológico 161, La cronología tipológica 162
6.3. Las actividades relacionadas con los geoglifos	163
La construcción y las modificaciones de los geoglifos 163,
Procesiones sobre los geoglifos 164, La colocación de vasijas de cerámica 164,
La construcción y el uso de plataformas de piedra sobre los geoglifos 164,
Resumen de las actividades humanas sobre y cerca de los geoglifos 165
6.4 Ubicación y disposición de los geoglifos	165
La disposición en un sitio 165, La disposición en una región 166
7. Discusión: El Modelo Andino y los geoglifos de Palpa	168
8. Resultados y conclusiones	169
